Poet from Kapurthala honoured by college

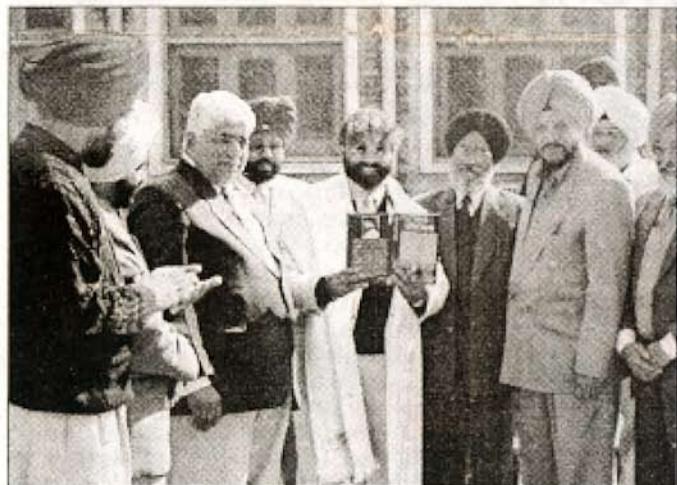

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
KAPURTHALA, FEBRUARY 7

RAJWINDER Singh, renowned poet from Kapurthala, who has the distinction of being honoured as the 'Poet Laureat' in German language by the Government of Germany, was honoured here at his home town at the Nawab Jassa Singh Ahluwalia Government College. A book of his poetic collections was released by the well-known Punjabi poet Surjit Patar.

The function was organised by the Sirjana Kendra, Kapurthala, in association with the Literary Forum. Surjit Patar, in his address, praised the efforts of Rajwinder Singh in the field of poetry. He enthralled the audience by singing a Gazal written by himself. The welcome address was made by renowned poet Harphool Singh. Others who were present on the occasion included Dr Surinder Gill, Gian Singh Sandhu and Dr Gurbaksh Bhandal. After the release of the book, a Ru-β-Ru programme was organised with Rajwinder Singh.
